

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT
JANUARY 12, 2015

CENTER FOR NARRATIVE STUDIES IN SCIENCE

AN EXPLORATORY WORKSHOP

JULY 6 – 9
HOTEL HOF
WEISSBAD, APPENZELL, SWITZERLAND

HOTEL HOF IN WEISSBAD

SEEALP SEE IN THE ALPSTEIN MOUNTAINS

Weissbad is a tiny town a few train stops after the town of Appenzell in Eastern Switzerland (a short train trip from the city of St.Gallen). It lies at the entrance to the Alpstein, a mountain region known for its beauty and easy access for hiking.

Hotel Hof in Weissbad is reached from Zurich Airport by train in one hour and forty-five minutes. A train leaves every 30 minutes. It is necessary to change trains once about half way through the trip. The hotel is about 250 m from the train station.

CONTACT

hans.fuchs@zhaw.ch, elisabeth.dumont@zhaw.ch, federico.corni@unimore.it

We are preparing a website dedicated to this event...

SPONSORED BY

Swiss National Science Foundation and
Institute of Applied Mathematics and Physics, School of Engineering, ZHAW, Winterthur

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM OVERVIEW

MONDAY, JULY 6, 2015	Arrival in Weissbad, Hotel Hof (late afternoon) Dinner
TUESDAY, JULY 7, 2015	Morning Introduction First presentations Coffee breaks Lunch Afternoon Discussions Coffee breaks Dinner
WEDNESDAY, JULY 8, 2015	Morning Introduction of goals of the workshop Introduction of and by participants Presentations: Ideas and opinions Coffee breaks Lunch Afternoon Discussions Coffee breaks Dinner
THURSDAY, JULY 9, 2015	Morning Summary of discussions – a research agenda for a Center of Narrative Studies in Science (Lunch) Departure

On July 7 or 8, depending upon the weather, we might plan an afternoon cable car trip to a mountain top nearby or to the nearby town of Appenzell – in which case we would work after dinner...